

Ports - Commercial

The port of Athinios is the main port of the island of Santorini. Located at the foot of the caldera is 8 km away from Fira, the capital of the island and 7 km from the International Airport of Santorini.

The port of Athinios is the main reception pillar for visitors coming from the sea. It is connected to the port of Piraeus daily and throughout the year and the nearby islands. Routes and connections multiply during the summer months.

At the port of Athinios you will find a variety of restaurants, cafes and mini markets, while in the air conditioned waiting area you can have access to free wireless internet. Finally, at the port you will find taxis and bus terminal for your transportation to all areas of the island.

The port of Athinios / Features:

Total quay length: 375 m

Distance from airport: 7 km

Distance from Fira (capital) : 8 km

Hours of Operation: 24 Hours

Taxi: Yes

Public Transportation: Yes

Parking: Yes (FREE)

WI-FI: Yes

ATM: Yes

First Aid: Yes

Restaurants, Cafes, Shops: Yes

Tweet

Source URL: <http://santoriniports.gr/en/port>