

Ferry Itineraries & Connections with other Destinations

The port of Athinios is the main coastal pillar on the island of Santorini. Santorini is connected to Piraeus and the nearby islands daily and throughout the year. During the summer months the routes multiply and destinations are added.

Santorini is connected to Piraeus, Paros, Naxos, Ios, Heraklion of Crete and Anafi all year-round.

During the summer months at the destinations are added the islands of Mykonos, Milos, Kos, Rhodes and other islands.

For more information contact the Desk of Municipal Port Fund of Thira at the port of Athinios and the ferry companies.
